Just in time for Christmas, we have a special gift solution for you. We have published a 24 page children's book called Arbolito the Saladillo. The foreword is by the famous wildlife artist Robert Bateman, and the author is Dexter Dombro, one of the founders of the La Pedregoza Natural Reserve. The natural reserve is located in the Orinoco River basin of Vichada, Colombia. We are selling the book in units of 10, with each book sold helping to plant native trees in the rain forest for expanded wildlife habitat. The book is a fundraiser for the amazing biodiversity at La Pedregoza.

Arbolito the Saladillo tells the story of Arbolito, a small Saladillo tree growing up on the edge of the inundation forest. The inundation forest is a type of rain forest that floods for up to 6 months of the year, when the rivers rise during the rainy season. Arbolito lives in the La Pedregoza Natural Reserve, a place set up to protect trees and animals. Young readers will get to meet a diverse cast of characters who survive in and depend on the inundation forest.

The books can be ordered on-line at www.pedregoza.org/book.html through PayPal, Visa or MasterCard, or you can order your set of 10 books by filling in this form and faxing it to 1-780-463-5125, or by scanning the form and emailing it to dexter@pedregoza.org. We will then contact you to make payment and delivery arrangements. Thank you!
